GOD'S FAVOUR SHALL CONTINUE TO BE WITH US—PRESIDENT MAHAMA

President John Dramani Mahama has extended warm wishes to all Ghanaians on this year's Christmas Day, urging Ghanaians "to reflect on the birth and life of Jesus Christ as we count our numerous blessings over the year."

The President, in a statement signed by the Minister for Communications, Dr Edward Omane Boamah, also drew attention to the just ended successful elections and emphasised that "God's favour shall continue to abide with us during the Christmas festivities and in the coming years."

Ahead of his departure to Bole in the Northern Region with his family to celebrate Christmas, President Mahama urged drivers to drive with care and responsibly.

He prayed that God grants the nation both an incident free and accident free festive period.
